FLORIDA ETHICS CONFERENCE

The John Scott Dailey Florida Institute of Government, in partnership with the Florida League of Cities, the Florida Association of Counties, the Florida Association of City Clerks, the Florida City and County Management Association, the Center for Florida Local Government Excellence, the Florida Press Association, and the Florida Local Government Information Systems Association, is pleased to present the 2011 Florida Ethics Conference to be held at the Marriott, Lake Mary, Florida. This educational seminar is designed for state, regional, and local governmental officials, employees, attorneys, and entities that work consistently with government in Florida.

The 2011 Florida Ethics Conference will feature leading government, litigation, and technology experts. Key presenters include Pat Gleason, Attorney General's Office; Joseph Centorino, Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics & Public Trust; Alan Johnson, Palm Beach County Commission on Ethics; Carla Miller, Jacksonville-Duval Office of Ethics; John Scott, Broward County Inspector General; leading government technologists; and members of the Florida Press Association. Sessions will offer participants the opportunity to explore ethics and open government laws, examine legal and ethical trends in the state, and ask questions of the experts and practitioners.
