The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009

Purposes

- (1) To preserve and create jobs and promote economic recovery.
- (2) To assist those most impacted by the recession.
- (3) To provide investments needed to increase economic efficiency by spurring technological advances in science and health.
- (4) To invest in transportation, environmental protection, and other infrastructure that will provide long-term economic benefits.
- (5) To stabilize State and local government budgets, in order to minimize and avoid reductions in essential services and counterproductive State and local tax increases.

Energy Efficiency Block Grant to Fund Green Government Grant Program

Section: Division A, Title IV | Agency: Governor's Energy Office

State of Florida Energy Program, 60% must be allocated to non-entitlement cities and counties. Allocated as follows: $14.1M to Energy Efficiency Grants for Small Communities; $9.4M to solar rebate program

See attached link for more details and award by state/city/county.

Brief description of program or funding including funding distribution method (formula or competitive grant):

The Energy Efficiency & Conservation Block Grant was created by the Congress within the Energy Independence & Security Act of 2007 and has never been funded since creation. The ARRA included $2.8 Billion for the EECBG. The Block Grant uses a formula for allocation: 68% of total funds goes directly from the U.S. Department of Energy to cities with populations greater than 35,000 and counties with populations greater than 200,000. Each state is guaranteed to have its top 10 cities and top 10 counties funded under the allocation. On March 26, 2009, the U.S. Department of Energy announced formula allocations of $138,241,800 to 17 counties, 69 cities, and 2 tribal governments in Florida.

The Block Grant allocates 28% of total funding to States, of which 60% must be allocated to cities and counties with populations below the direct-funding threshold. Florida's share of the States portion of the EECBG is $30,401,600 of which $18,240,960 would be allocated to the smaller cities and counties. The States are given discretion in developing allocation methods for these funds.

Welcome to FlaRecovery.com

Florida's economy is being tested in ways we haven't seen in decades, and during these challenging times, I am grateful for the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. During three budget years, up to $13.4 billion in federal stimulus dollars will be injected into Florida's economy. These dollars
