MARGARET HOOVER

"Firing Line with Margaret Hoover," a public affairs, multi-platform program that engages in long-form interviews and a rigorous exchange of ideas with the guiding principle that civil discourse is a civic responsibility. A CNN contributor, she has served in the White House under President George W. Bush, in the Department of Homeland Security, on Capitol Hill and on two presidential campaigns. John and Margaret live in New York City with their two children.

They will discuss topics that include John's latest book, Lincoln and the Fight for Peace, Margaret's work as host of "Firing Line" and Disagreeing Agreeably: Tackling Today's Issues While Finding Common Ground. At a time when Americans feel more divided than ever before about politics, they will offer a much-needed example of how we can disagree agreeably.

Second General Session

Featuring recognition of the Years of Service awards and an address by National League of Cities President Victoria Woodards.

Mayor Victoria Woodards of Tacoma, WA, serves as the President of the National League of Cities (NLC). She was elected Mayor in 2018.

Woodards has called the "City of Destiny" her home for almost her entire life. She is a proud graduate of Tacoma's Lincoln High School and has served as a soldier in the United States Army. Before becoming Mayor, she served for seven years as an at-large member of the City Council. During that time, she launched the city's Equity and Empowerment initiative, which led to the establishment of its Office of Equity and Human Rights. She also brought partner organizations together for then-President Barack Obama's My Brother's Keeper initiative and spearheaded the city's Project PEACE initiative, which bridged community members with the Tacoma Police Department.

As Mayor, she continues to be a champion of these important issues while expanding her involvement in regional and national conversations on affordable housing, transportation, strengthening youth and families, public safety, growing local business and the creation of family wage jobs. She has also worked to more fully engage the city's youth in community decisions that impact them every day by expanding Student Government Day and establishing the city's first Youth Commission.
