TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida League of Cities, the united voice for Florida's municipal governments, today issued a statement thanking Governor Ron DeSantis for his commitment to affordable and workforce housing.

"On behalf of the state's 411 municipalities, the Florida League of Cities applauds Governor DeSantis for prioritizing workforce and affordable housing in his budget released today. It's important we provide affordable housing for Florida's essential workers. Florida is currently in a housing crisis, and the pandemic has made this problem even bigger. We hope that as the House and Senate craft their budgets, they give attention to the housing needs of Florida's cities by fully funding the Sadowski Trust Fund."

The Florida League of Cities has been the united voice of Florida's municipal governments since its establishment in 1922. Its goals are to promote local self-government and to serve the needs of Florida's cities, towns and villages.
